DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to communication filed on 8/31/2005.
2. Claims 23, 40 and 41 are presented for examination.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 23, 40 and 41 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-16 of U.S.

Patent No. 09/756,931. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented claims further recite a first and a second window to display the zoomed process. Official notice is taken that it is old and well known in the computer arts to open multiple windows in order to present information on different portion of the computer screen and therefore allowing different controls of the individual windows such as shrinking/enlarging/highlighting individuals window at will. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of Applicant's invention to have included a first and a second window to display the zoomed process in order to obtain the above mentioned advantage.

Response to Amendment

5. The claims amendment overcame the 101 rejection.
